Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Healthy, energetic citizens are South Dakota's greatest resource and most important commodity; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Public Health and Environmental Health Associations are organizations composed of federal, state and local professionals and individuals from the private sector; and,

WHEREAS, Some of these workers ensure the safety and cleaniness of South Dakota's medical facilities, restaurants, motels, campgrounds, water systems, swimming pools, grocery stores and dairy farms, all places essential to our everyday life; and,

WHEREAS, Other workers ensure the health of South Dakotans through education and prevention of communicable diseases; and,

WHEREAS, Because of their dedicated efforts to preserve and enhance the health of all South Dakotans, health workers in all types of jobs including, but not limited to, community health nurses, communicable disease specialists, public and environmental health surveyors, laboratory technicians, and administrative personnel should be recognized for their important contributions:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 17 through 23, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I urge all citizens to join me in recognizing the valuable contributions of these organizations to our health and welfare.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
